

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF PUBLIC CHARITIES.

FOR THE YEAR ENDING DECEMBER 31, 1914.

Harrisburg, Pa., January 1, 1915.

To the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly Met:

In conformity with the Legislative Act creating it, the Board of Commissioners of Public Charities begs leave to submit, for your consideration, its report for the year ending December 31st, 1914, together with its recommendations for appropriations for the years 1915 and 1916.

The financial depression which has prevailed over the country generally for a year or more past has been felt more severely in Pennsylvania than in most other States. This is due to the fact that our industries, mining and manufacturing principally, were more effected by this depression and our industrial life is so directly related to our charitable work that the strain on the various institutions, both State and private, has been most severe. The claims upon our institutions are greater and the demands for charity more compelling than ever before.

These institutions and their work are also adversely affected by the higher cost of almost every item entering into their maintenance, due primarily to increased cost of practically all food stuffs and to the present high cost of all medical and surgical supplies occasioned by the war in Europe. While this industrial depression has not resulted in any great reduction of wages, it has very generally resulted in a partial suspension of work in our mines and factories. Many men are out of work and are, therefore, more liable to be objects of charity, both themselves and their families, than under ordinary circumstances.

Following our usual custom, we have made a careful analysis of each individual application and have based the recommendations herein made, first, upon the necessity for the institutions, and second, upon the amount expended for free work as shown by their reports for the last fiscal year. It will be noted that no recommendation has been made for buildings for private institutions. Our reasons for declining to make recommendations for buildings for private institutions are: First. The greatly increased cost of maintenance above referred to, provision for which seems absolutely necessary. Second. The fact that additional buildings are absolutely necessary in many of the State and Semi-State institutions. Third. Several new institutions are to be provided, of which mention will be found below.

When considering the large sums contributed by the State for charitable work, it is necessary to consider likewise the great number of our population, who in some form or other, receive the State's bounty. About one per cent. of the total population of the State is cared for during the entire year by public and private charities. The population of the various institutions at the end of the last statistical year was 75,410, classified and distributed as follows:

In insane asylums, hospitals, state and county institutions,	18,062
In homes for children and aged persons,	19,103
In state hospitals for miners,	704
In various private hospitals,	9,835
In private sanatoria for consumptives,	477
In institutions for weak minded,	3,292
In various reform schools,	1,637
In institutions for the deaf and dumb,	913
In institutions for the blind,	337
In penal institutions,	2,919
In jails and workhouses,	2,030
In almshouses,	16,101

In addition to this current population, 217,261 persons were cared for in State and private hospitals for a longer or shorter period during the year. The above does not include population in the State Tuberculosis Hospitals at Mt. Alto, Cresson and Hamburg.

Briefly as to Hospitals and Homes:

689,126 dispensary patients treated free.
 2,229,941 free hospital days.
 4,533,430 days in various Homes aided or supported by the State.

The crowded condition of many of the institutions, the large waiting lists of applicants for admission and proper provision for classes not already provided for makes imperative demands on the State for increased capacity of the present institutions and speedy provision for other institutions hereinafter mentioned.

We have given more than ordinary care to the consideration of these applications and reached these findings and recommendations after thorough investigation, making such recommendations as we believe will relieve the actual needs of the various applicants and enable them to continue their beneficent work.

While the amount applied for by an institution is not an infallible guide to its actual needs, we must perforce, having confidence in the integrity of the management, give most careful consideration to what it believes it needs to be. Your attention is called to the vast sums applied for as compared with the amount herein recommended. Doubtless much more might be used to advantage by the various institutions, but under existing conditions we have not felt warranted in making more liberal recommendations at this time. The demands upon the State for increased appropriation for the insane, the weak minded, epileptic and other classes, physically and mentally defective, are very great and you will observe that a large amount of the increase in our recommendations is to provide for these various classes of dependents.

We now beg to direct your earnest attention to some legislation which we think essential to the welfare of the people of the Commonwealth. Some of the bills to which we refer have been presented to previous General Assemblies, but failed of enactment. Our reason for again calling this to your attention is our belief in the necessity for such legislation and our faith that the enactment of such bills will be remedial in their several spheres.

We have recently recommended the passage of "An Act to prevent the pro-creation of idiots, imbeciles and feeble-minded persons." The most casual observer, as well as the most advanced student of sociological economics, will endorse our views on the necessity for such legislation and if not this bill in its entirety, one of similar purport. A visit to any institution caring for the weak-minded and epileptic will supply ample argument.

We recently asked for the enactment of legislation for the better management of county jails in the several counties of the Commonwealth, advising that Boards of Prison Inspectors be appointed by the Courts in all counties and that an entire change be made in the management of all county jails not now under the government of wardens. A vast improvement has been effected in the jail management in the State during the past ten years, but there is still a field for improvement. That such a change would be beneficial is proven by the results obtained in every prison where such a change has been made. Some jails in our State are not creditable to say the least.

If a jail is to be used other than for merely the detention of individuals awaiting trial, or the detention of important witnesses in criminal cases, that is one side of the question. If, on the other hand, a jail is to be used as a prison, where guilty persons are to be confined, that is another question. Our own belief is that a jail, if possible, should be used only as a place of detention and temporarily so, and that the work house system of which we now speak, is the proper form of prison or place of confinement that should be inaugurated—a place where such offender may be confined at labor, the result of which labor may be compensated for and the receipts thereof, after deducting the expenses of the prisoner's maintenance may be given to his dependents.

We will again introduce a bill, providing for the establishment of a State system of workhouses. We believe much good would attend the thorough consideration of the plan proposed in this bill. In fact, this matter and the subject of the preceding clause are both well worthy of your earnest consideration and we believe affirmative action would put Pennsylvania far in advance of her sister States in this class of penal institutions.

In our message of two years since, we suggested the idea that the State carry its own insurance on buildings owned in fee by it and that, for such purpose, an initial fund be provided, the amount of which is left to your judgment, and to which fund may be added from time to time. We have corresponded with a number of other States in regard to this matter, and, with but a single exception, all report that the insurance risk is carried by the State itself and we believe a material saving to the State would result if such a policy were adopted here. A glance at the immense sum appropriated for this purpose is a strong argument for our recommendations.

We are gratified to report the enactment of several laws for the welfare of delinquent and incorrigible children, particularly the Act "placing the responsibility on the counties for the maintenance of neglected or dependent children placed in the care and custody of any association, society, person or family by the Courts of this Commonwealth." This is an important law and places the responsibility absolutely on the county.

Also, an Act "Amending the Juvenile Court Act for the detention of children awaiting trial and providing for the care and maintenance of such children while detained." This Act places on the county Commissioners the responsibility of caring for children while in custody.

Also, an Act amending the Act relative to delinquent children so as to cover dependent, neglected or incorrigible children and providing for the payment of the board of such children by the county when under the care of a probation officer.

We are gratified indeed that the preceding General Assembly passed, at our instance, many Acts beneficial to the various classes with whose care your Board of Charities is charged. Among these Acts was one approved June 19th, 1913, extending the provisions of an Act providing for the protection of female insane persons in transit so as to make its provisions cover feeble-minded and epileptic persons while in transit.

An Act approved June 19th, 1913, providing for the employment of the insane, feeble-minded and epileptic persons confined in institutions, whether wholly or in part maintained by the State.

An Act approved May 1st, 1913, amending the charter Act, organizing the State Hospital for the Insane at Danville, extending the power of the trustees to same and fixing the term of office of the superintendent.

An Act providing for the establishment of a State industrial home for women. The Commission appointed for this purpose has selected a site at Muncy Station, near Williamsport. The site was subject to the approval of the Board of Public Charities. A committee of this Board passed finally and affirmatively on the site and have so notified the Commission. A great need will be cared for by the provisions of this Act and we repeat our gratification that this work is now under headway.

An Act, approved July 25th, 1913, establishing a State village for feeble-minded women, providing for the appointment of a Board of Managers to select a site for this purpose. This Commission has its work under way and has selected a site at Glen Iron, near Lewisburg, in Union County. The question of providing for this class of dependents has been agitated by our Board for many years. Their number is alarming and we are greatly relieved that this work is now under substantial headway. We are notified that an architect has been selected and the physical construction will be begun at an early date. The site is said to be a most satisfactory one, with ample water supply, good drainage—a location, in fact, altogether desirable.

Considerable adverse comment has been made because our State did not provide a separate institution for the specific treatment of those habitually addicted to the use of alcoholic drink or intoxicating drugs. We are pleased to say that on July 25th, 1913, approval was given to an Act making provision for such an institution. A site has been selected in Cumberland County and a Commission, in conformity with the Act, is now preparing plans for this much needed institution.

While on this subject, we are constrained to remark, whether it be directly or not within our province, that legislation looking towards the prohibition of the manufacture and sale of harmful products within our Commonwealth might be inquired into with laudable results. And on the subject of legislation generally, that which is preventive in its character is most desirable and might be profitably employed in this instance. In nearly every class of institution within our charge, indisputable evidence is constantly before us in the form of the ravages of disease and delinquency, due to the use of alcohol and drugs.

A great need was supplied when the psychopathic wards were established in certain hospitals. The Act was further amended, under date of May 1st, 1913. To those interested in the care of the class of patients for which this Bill provides, the subject and its treatment under this Act must appeal.

Due to the great pressure for accommodations for the feeble-minded and epileptic, substantial increases were recommended, both at Polk and Spring City, in our last report. As previously mentioned in this report, additional capacity is now required for this class and for the insane. The care of the insane is a question constantly with us. It is no new subject. In reviewing certain reports of our Board for the past forty (40) years, we find this question frequently, in fact, almost continuously referred to. The constant agitation as to whether or not insanity is on the increase is not so much the issue, as provision for the immediate care of what we know exists.

We wish to submit for your consideration the establishment by the State of an institution which shall be devoted to the care of patients suffering from incurable diseases, such as cancer, paralysis, locomotor ataxia, etc. There are private homes for incurables in Pittsburgh and Philadelphia, but their capacity is limited and they have long waiting lists. It is practically impossible to secure the admission of any additional patients within a reasonable time. The patients for whom this provision is needed, are those who can pay only a very moderate sum for their maintenance and who cannot be properly cared for in the County Almshouses, even if they were proper subjects for these institutions, for the reason that such institutions cannot give the proper treatment or care on account of the lack of nurses and the expense entailed by reason of the special care required. Men and women suffering from incurable diseases, many of whom have been good and useful citizens and who have absolutely no hope of recovery, should be provided with such surroundings and custodial care as to make their existence as comfortable and pleasant as possible.

Pursuant to an Act approved August 25th, 1913, a Commission was appointed to investigate and report on the dependents, delinquents and criminals in this Commonwealth and said Commission has been actively at work and will make, shortly, an exhaustive report.

Many of the subjects which, under other circumstances, would naturally be a part of our report, will be treated by that Commission, and we will leave them to be dwelt upon in that report.

On the question of the management of almshouses and institutions of similar character, a subject which has agitated us for many years, we beg to report progress. The increased powers given us by Bill No. 101, approved May 1, 1913, enable us to prosecute our work in a manner to bring satisfactory results. Our authority having previously been only advisory, in many cases, ended there; but now, with the power to prosecute or call for the prosecution of negligent officials, needed improvement will follow.

There is a most serious matter we would like to call to your attention and ask a remedy at your hands. In view of our many years experience in this work, we want to enter a protest and ask for certain changes in methods that have heretofore prevailed. When a new institution has been determined upon, it has been the custom to appoint a Commission, with power to select a site, employ an architect and prosecute the work. Then, after the institution is completed, or alleged to be completed, it is turned over to a Board of Trustees to manage. The Board of Public Charities, which, under the law, has supervision over the institution after it is completed, has nothing whatever to say during what might be termed the "formative period." The result is that these Commissions go ahead, spend money—in fact, we might go so far as to say, waste money,—because the impractical use of funds is nothing short of wasting them. The institutions are turned over for occupancy and operation and those to whom they are turned over find them impossible of practical use, in many cases. We could name instances of such mal-administration, as it might be termed. We earnestly suggest that hereafter, when institutions coming within the purview of the Board of Public Charities are to be created, the Legislative enactment begin with the selection of the trustees and that they, instead of a separate commission, be empowered to select a site, employ an architect, etc., and that their acts be subject to the approval of the Board of Public Charities.

Large sums have been thus spent improperly in the past. Institutions have been located where their work could not be profitably conducted. Buildings were erected, in many instances, which were not suitable for the work contemplated. In some instances, the work of already existing institutions was duplicated and therefore, great annoyance and confusion resulted, to say nothing of the loss of money. We must use strong language and say that this policy in the past has been most hurtful to the charities of the State, causing much worry and additional burden on our Board in having the conditions readjusted. We are now suffering for lack of room for certain classes, whereas had our knowledge of conditions been consulted and followed, such objectionable features would not exist, at least, to any appreciable extent.

We advocate the adoption of laws, which will provide a pension system for superannuated and disabled employes in our State institutions, whereby those persons who well and faithfully serve the State for a long period of years, may be enabled to retire to private life with a modest income, thereby avoiding the possibility of their becoming dependents upon charity in their old age. By the adoption of some such plan, we believe that a better grade of nurses, guards and attendants, etc., could be obtained. Moreover, their automatic discharge at a fixed age limit would effectually prevent their retention in employment after they have become unfitted by age, to continue therein.

As there is on our Statute books much confusion regarding laws regulating the government of the poor, owing to their number and conflicting provisions, we take it upon ourselves to advise a general, comprehensive law on this subject which will operate uniformly in all the poor districts of the Commonwealth.

In closing, we think it proper that we pay grateful tribute to the very loyal support and encouragement given us in our work by the retiring Governor, Honorable John K. Tener. We have, at all times, found him alive to the interests of the various classes under our supervision. His practical and sympathetic views have been of untold value and encouragement to this Board and we take this occasion to give expression to our appreciation of his cordial co-operation.

We will be most happy to answer any individual inquiries on the various subjects and court your inquiries into the work of our Board. Again earnestly asking your co-operation in behalf of charities, the above is respectfully submitted.

Faithfully yours,

FRANCIS J. TORRANCE,
President.

General Agent and Secretary.

LEGISLATION OF THE PAST SESSION AND PRESENT NEEDS OF THE CHARITIES OF THE STATE.*

An analysis of past legislation relative to charity would carry us back to the days when the Province of Pennsylvania was established. In fact, it would take us back to 1682, when William Penn's code or "Frame of Government" was adopted. This would be impossible in the space of time allotted to me.

Therefore, we have only to consider the legislation enacted at the session of 1913, with which the Board of Public Charities was vitally interested and in which it took an active part.

Permit me to say at the beginning, at the last session of the legislature, there was enacted more important legislation affecting the dependent and delinquent classes of this community than at any session of the Legislature in this generation. This assertion may be startling, but it is true.

Legislation was enacted which commits the State to the further care of the children, the feeble-minded and epileptic, the inebriates and the woman offender.

New Institutions.

The establishment of the Pennsylvania Village for Feeble-Minded Women, provides for the selection of a site on the State Forest Reserve, and erection and furnishing of buildings on same; and for the commitment thereto of feeble-minded females between the ages of sixteen and forty-five years. (This bill was introduced by Representative Charles A. Ambler of Montgomery County, and he deserves much credit for the manner in which the bill was handled in the House).

The act for the establishment of a State Industrial Home for Women, provides for the purchase of a site, and the erection thereon and equipment of necessary buildings, and also provides for the commitment to said home, of females between the ages of sixteen and thirty years; convicted of, or pleading guilty to, the commission of any criminal offense.

The establishment of a State Institution for Inebriates providing for the selection of a site and erection of a State Institution for the detention, care and treatment of inebriates, or persons habitually addicted to the use of alcoholic drink or intoxicating drugs, where we hope to see the principles of a farm colony carried out, such as they have in Massachusetts and other States.

I will say briefly that the enormous sum of $1,551,000 was appropriated to the feeble-minded institutions at Polk and Spring City for maintenance, buildings and improvements. Of this amount $400,000 was for the erection of eight modern cottages, thus furnishing additional accommodations for 604 feeble-minded and epileptics.

Legislation for the Feeble-Minded and the Insane.

Another Act drawn and introduced in the Legislature at the instigation of our Board was an Act permitting the sale or exchange of manufactured goods and products, under certain conditions, made and produced by the insane and feeble-minded inmates of the institutions, for the benefit of such persons. Also an Act providing for the better protection of insane and feeble-minded and epileptic females in transit.

Another important act was the act providing for the establishment of psychopathic wards in general hospitals. This is important legislation and in many cases will help the unfortunate man or woman, who suddenly becomes insane or is suffering from temporary mental disorders by being committed to the hospital for observation, instead of going to an insane hospital and ever having to bear the stigma of having been an inmate of an insane institution.

Child Welfare Legislation.

Several Acts for the welfare of delinquent and incorrigible children were passed. I refer particularly to the following:

"An Act placing the responsibility on the counties for the maintenance of 'neglected' or 'dependent' children placed in the care and custody of any association, society, person, or family by the Courts of this Commonwealth." (This Act is important enough to quote in its entirety.)

"Section 1. Be it enacted, etc. That where any neglected or dependent child is or shall be committed to the care and custody of any association, society, person, or family, by any Court, and an order for the payment of the maintenance of the child and the expense of such commitment is made upon the proper county, in pursuance of the laws of this Commonwealth, the county from which such child has been committed to the said association, society, person, or family, shall be liable to the said association, society, person, or family for the maintenance of the said child and all expenses connected therewith: Provided, That the county shall in all cases have full recourse to recover all expenses incurred in behalf of said child so committed from the parties or persons or poor district properly charged therewith under the laws of this Commonwealth.

Approved the 8th day of May, A. D. 1913."

"An Act amending the 'Juvenile Court' for the detention of children awaiting trial, and providing for the care and maintenance of such children while detained."

"An Act amending the Act relative to 'Delinquent children,' so as to cover dependent or incorrigible children and providing for the payment of the board of such children when under the care of a probation officer when placed in a suitable family home."

Jails and Almshouses.

Another important piece of legislation is the Act conferring additional powers upon the Board of Public Charities and providing means for the correction of unsatisfactory conditions in almshouses and jails. Since the approval of this Act by the Governor on May 1st, 1913, serious conditions complained of in 33 counties in this Commonwealth have been corrected and I am happy to say that we have not had to go the District Attorney for indictment of any officer of any almshouse, jail, prison, workhouse, or penitentiary, in this Commonwealth. There has been a most gratifying improvement in the above institutions.

Finally, one of the most important pieces of constructive legislation that has been attempted for years has been the appointment by the Governor of the State Dependent's Commission, whose duties are to investigate the present condition of all classes of dependents of the State and to recommend in their report to the Governor such changes as will make this great philanthropic work of the State more effective and the administration of the institutions devoted to their care more efficient. Such is the eleemosynary legislation of the last session. It speaks for itself. Is there any true Pennsylvanian who is not proud of what has been accomplished through the efforts of the good men and women of this Commonwealth?

First and foremost on the roll of honor is one who has ever been the steadfast friend of this legislation for the last two sessions his Excellency, the Governor of this Commonwealth—John K. Tener. In his message to the Legislature, he officially recommended the establishment of a Woman's Industrial Home and he threw into the balance the power of his great office to the consummation of this desire. When all this legislation was on troubled waters and the situation looked black, he was ever encouraging and cheerfully optimistic of the final outcome.

The chairman of the appropriation committee of the Senate, the Honorable Charles H. Kline, aided us in every way, and by the great influence of his position, the interest manifested and tact displayed made possible the passage of this legislation.

It is due to say, however, that there was no opposition to these bills in the Senate and they were passed practically unanimously.

Among the members of the House who were friends of this legislation I would particularly mention Representatives Baldwin, Heyburn and Ramsey of Delaware County, Representative Whittaker of Chester County, Adams of Luzerne County, Glenn of Venango County, Ehrhardt of Lackawanna County, Gibson of Lycoming County, Hess of Lancaster County, Jones of Susquehanna County, Stein of Allegheny County, Flynn of Elk County, and practically all of the Philadelphia delegation.

Associated with us on the firing line were Judge and Mrs. Biddle of Carlisle, Mrs. H. Gordon McCouch and Mr. E. D. Solenberger of Philadelphia, Mr. Kane of York, Mrs. E. V. Middleton of Harrisburg, Mrs. Henry C. Davis, of Philadelphia, and many others.

New Legislation.

As to the future, we should have more accommodations for the insane. The Committee on Lunacy of the Board of Public Charities has strongly recommended a new State Hospital for the Southeastern District, also one for the southwestern part of the State. Philadelphia has now between four and five thousand indigent insane, half of whom are in State Hospitals, and the remainder in the Philadelphia Hospital at Blockley and Byberry Farms. As the overcrowding here is great and the care and treatment of patients unsatisfactory, and as the City of Philadelphia is unable to remedy this state of affairs it is suggested that a State Hospital in the southeastern district would correct this. The Semi-State Hospital at Dixmont (near Pittsburgh) is too small to respond to the needs of the large district in which it is situated and it is, therefore, suggested that a new hospital should also be built in the southwestern district.

The last legislation made magnificent provision for the class popularly known as the feeble-minded, especially for the women. Before we advance further in this direction, legislation must be provided declaring and defining the degree of feeble-mindedness that unfits a man or woman for social life and requires his or her permanent detention in an institution where the feeble-minded and epileptics are committed for custodial care.

Workhouses.

The rich and populous counties of Allegheny and Philadelphia have workhouses. In the latter case, it is called the House of Correction, Employment and Reformation. Originally the House of Correction, Philadelphia, was part of the city almshouse. Courts and Magistrates can commit vagrants and misdemeanors to these institutions, where they must work, which they cannot be compelled to do in the ordinary almshouse.

In examining the poor legislation of the past, we find that authority was given by the Province of Pennsylvania to the counties to erect almshouses and workhouses, as far back as 1718, by an Act approved February 27th, 1718, entitled "An Act for Erecting House of Correction and Workhouses in the respective counties of this province, which named specifically Philadelphia, Chester and

Bucks Counties. This was followed by the Act of 1767, which was "to prevent the mischiefs arising from the increase of vagabonds and other idle and disorderly persons within this province," which contained a provision for the erection of workhouses by any county prescribing the method of procedure to establish such workhouses. This was subsequently followed by a special Act of February 27th, 1798, entitled, "An Act to Provide for the Erection of Houses for the Employment and Support of the Poor in the counties of Chester and Lancaster." "This became the classic Act for all subsequent ones." (See William Clinton Heffner's History of Poor Relief Legislation in Pennsylvania, 1682 to 1913, page 139.)

From this legislation it is apparent that the minds of the legislators in that day turned to work as the solution of the problem of pauperism and idleness.

At the present time it seems to me a system of State Workhouses would add much to the solution of this problem. It is evident from the experience of nearly 200 years in this Commonwealth that the counties are either unwilling or unable to avail themselves of the opportunity of establishing County Workhouses. Therefore, the only alternative is a system of State Workhouses and the Board of Public Charities, at the session of 1909, and each subsequent session, has advocated the adoption of a State Workhouse system, and through President Torrance of our Board introduced a Joint Resolution providing for the appointment by the Governor of a Commission to consider and report on the advisability of establishing a system of State Workhouses, to which workhouses shall be committed persons convicted of misdemeanors in the several counties and sentenced to imprisonment for not less nor more than certain periods to be prescribed, said system to be established with the object of using county jails and prisons for the imprisonment of persons awaiting trial or otherwise temporarily detained and convicts sentenced to brief terms of imprisonment.

The provisions in this would divide the State into districts, each consisting of one or more counties. If this system were adopted by the State, the products of these State Workhouses could be sold to, or exchanged with other State institutions.

Children.

As to the dependent and delinquent children, I know of no better authority on this question than Judge Johnson, President Judge of Delaware County, and member of the Board of Public Charities, and he says that the two classes of dependent and delinquents, though differently named, strangely run together, and most of the juvenile delinquency, indeed nearly all, arises not from any inherent wickedness on the part of the child, but rather from his environment, and the Judge suggests that the present system of dealing with these classes might be modified and enlarged by giving the Juvenile Court absolute jurisdiction over the control of these classes, up to the age of sixteen years.

The Juvenile Court Act of 1903, in the main, is satisfactory, as it sufficiently defines and designates the delinquent and dependent classes, and possibly no change is needed in that, but as to the question of support, in addition to the powers the Court now possesses, it should be given the power to order the maintenance of families in their homes, with the same authority and power to impose the cost of maintenance, as it now possesses in individual cases.

It should also be empowered to place children in homes, outside of the county or city; but the jurisdiction should continue within the discretion of the Court. The Court should have full power, as they in part do have, to send children to the Detention House, under the care of a Probation Officer, or to send them to any family, person, society or corporation actually engaged in the care of children, with the object of finding separate individual homes, wherever possible.

It is further suggested that the present various acts relating to the Juvenile Court may be repealed and a comprehensive single act passed, including the improvements suggested by experience and covering at least the suggestions above made.

To these present needs of the charities of the State, our Board has given its hearty approval and support, and with your help at the coming session, we should be able to give these ideas the force of law.

The legislation of the past session was a great step forward; let us all unite to make the coming session a glorious one in the history of our beloved Commonwealth.*

OPINION OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL.

March 27th, 1914.

Bromley Wharton, Esq.,

General Agent and Secretary, Board of Public Charities,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:—This Department is in receipt of your letter of February 27th requesting an opinion as to whether the County Commissioners or Directors of the Poor of York County are bound to take steps to place the York County Almshouse in proper condition.

The Act of 1 May, 1913, P. L. 149, Section 2, authorizes the Commissioners of Public Charities, whenever they find in an almshouse a condition which, in their judgment, is not conducive to the proper care of the inmates, to recommend to the officers "charged by law with the government of such institution," such changes as the Commissioners deem necessary and proper to correct the objectionable condition, and if their recommendations are not acted upon, the Commissioners may certify the facts, with their recommendation, to the District Attorney of the proper county for proceedings by indictment or otherwise.

I understand that there are conditions in the York County Almshouse which, in the opinion of the Commissioners of Public Charities, require correction. The question is, what officers are "charged by law with the government of such institution?"

*From the proceedings of the Association of Directors of the Poor and Charities and Corrections of Pennsylvania, at Carlisle, on October 7, 1914.

You are advised that the Directors of the Poor of York County are the officers referred to in the Act of 1913.

The erection of the York County Poorhouse is provided for by the Act of 6 February, 1804, P. L. 65, which Act requires the citizens of York County to elect three Directors of the Poor and the House of Employment for the County of York.

Section 4 gives these Directors, among other powers, the powers "to purchase, take and hold any lands and tenements within the said county of York, in fee simple, or otherwise, and erect suitable buildings thereon, for the reception, use and accommodation of the poor of their several townships; to provide all things necessary for the reception, lodging, maintenance and employment of the said poor."

Section 5 provides that the Directors of the Poor are to make an estimate of the probable expense of purchasing land, erecting and furnishing buildings, and maintaining the poor in York County for one year,

"whereupon the Commissioners of York County shall, and they are hereby authorized and required to increase the county tax by one-fourth part of the sum necessary for the purposes aforesaid," and to borrow the remaining three-fourths, or, if necessary, to add the whole amount to the county tax.

Section 9 provides that the Directors shall, "from time to time, receive, provide for and employ" all poor persons entitled to relief.

Section 11 provides that the Directors shall visit the apartments in the House of Employment "and see that the poor are comfortably supported."

There have been a number of Acts relating to the York County Poorhouse passed since the Act of 1804. We give herewith a complete list of those Acts:

1 April,	1805, P. L. 203.
10 April,	1826, P. L. 321.
24 March,	1832, P. L. 171.
6 April,	1833, P. L. 205.
14 February,	1838, P. L. 24.
15 April,	1845, P. L. 465, Sec. 20.
3 March,	1847, P. L. 206.
2 March,	1846, P. L. 74.
2 April,	1849, P. L. 321.
6 April,	1850, P. L. 378.

None of these Acts substantially modifies the Act of 1804.

Of course, there has been general legislation applicable to poor persons in the various counties in the State, commencing with the Act of 8th May, 1876, P. L. 149, and ending with the Act of 4th June, 1879, P. L. 78, which latter act creates poor districts and imposes the duty of governing almshouses therein upon the county commissioners, with the exception contained in Section 21, as follows:

"This Act shall not be construed to repeal any local act or acts under which poorhouses or homes for relief of the destitute have been erected, or are now managed or controlled."

At the time of the passage of the Act of 1879, a poorhouse had been erected and was being managed and controlled in York County under the provisions of the Act of 1804, and for that reason the Act of 1879 did not affect the government of the York County Poorhouse. (See Commonwealth vs. Summerville, 204 Pa. 300, 1903).

Attention is called to the cases of Brown vs. Gahring, 18 Dist. Rep. 516, 1908, in which it was said by Wanner, J.:

"An order for relief is also necessary in York County, vide Section 9 of the Act of Assembly of February 6, 1904, 4 Smith's Laws 113, under which Act a special system was established for the maintenance of the poor in the County of York, which is still in force. * * * * * All of the paupers of both the city and county of York are supported together in the same manner in the county almshouse, under the provisions of said Act of 1804," and Commonwealth, ex rel., vs. York County Commissioners, 19 Pa. Dist. 920, 1910, in which it was decided that no legislation has changed the method for the election of Directors of the Poor in York County provided by the Act of 1804.

It results from what has been said that the Act of 1804 is in full force and determines the question of the responsibility for the condition of the York County Almshouse.

Under the provisions of that Act, as above quoted, it cannot be doubted that the duty of providing for the maintenance of the poor in York County rests upon the Directors of the Poor, nor can it be doubted that the duty to erect an adequate almshouse is necessarily implied from the obligation to maintain the poor.

You are therefore advised that such recommendations as the Commissioners of Public Charities may have to make concerning the condition of the York County Almshouse, should be addressed to the Directors of the Poor of that County.

Very truly yours,

JOHN C. BELL,
Attorney General.

STATISTICS FOR 1914.

The statistical report is submitted in two parts, the first comprising criminal statistics, the second statistics of the unfortunate and indigent classes.

Criminal statistics are classified as follows: Proceedings of criminal courts, as shown by the returns of prothonotaries or clerks; convicts and other prisoners in penitentiaries, county prisons, workhouse and house of correction; and juvenile delinquents in the reformatories of the State.

Statistics of the unfortunate and indigent classes relate to inmates of hospitals for the insane, training schools for feeble-minded children, institutions for the deaf and dumb and instruction of the blind, almshouses, out-door relief in almshouse districts, hospitals, homes, etc.

COUNTY PRISONS AND WORKHOUSE.

There are 67 County Jails in this State, a Workhouse and a House of Correction.

Prisoners who have been sentenced by the court to serve terms of imprisonment or to be electrocuted are classed as "Convicts," while for convenience of designation, all prisoners committed for trial or hearing, in default of payment of fines and costs, for contempt of court, or under sentence of justices of peace, are classed under the general head of untried prisoners, etc.

To a proper understanding of these statistics, it must be born in mind that the former class is not in addition to the latter class, but grows out of it; that convicts, in short have, for the most part, been originally "untried prisoners." In considering the population of the jails at any given date, the two classes must be added to arrive at a total.

The number of prisoners of the several classes at the beginning of the year, the number added thereto, the number discharged, and the number remaining at the end of the year are shown below:

Movement of Criminal Population.	Convicts.	Untried Prisoners.
In prison January 1, 1914,	2,148	2,863

Dental Cases.

The following cases were treated by the dentist during the year:

Visits to dentist,	276	Pulps capped,	31
Alloy fillings,	95	Pulps extracted,	24
Cement fillings,	115	Pulps divitalized,	25
Gutta percha fillings,	69	Pericementitis,	7
Canals dressed,	99	Aveolar abscess,	3
Canals filled,	87	Extractions,	130
Pulpitis,	2	Artificial crowns,	4

Heredity.

Of the whole attendance, 36 per cent. were born deaf, doubtless owing to hereditary causes; nearly 15 per cent. lost from meningitis; 6 per cent. from scarlet fever; 4 per cent. from measles and so on. Twenty cases became deaf from causes unknown, according to the reports sent in, but very probably these were born deaf also. The number born deaf seems slightly on the increase. The proportion of deafness to hearing is about 1 to 1,600 in the general population.

Instruction.

There were no changes in the method of instruction pursued. As for several years past oral or speech methods were enforced throughout the whole school, sign methods are not recognized or permitted as a means of instruction. All pupils are taught to speak and read the lips. A good English education is imparted. The full course includes instruction in language, spoken and written, grammar, composition, arithmetic, algebra, English and American history, physiology, civics, geography, natural science and morals. Pupils taking the full course receive a diploma; pupils taking a partial course receive certificates of honorable discharge.

It gives me pleasure to report that Kathryn Mae Frick, the blind and deaf child from Dauphin County, for whose care and instruction special appropriation is made by the State, is making most satisfactory progress. She is pursuing the regular course of study in every particular and is acquiring a fluent command of English. Grace Pearl, another blind and deaf child, is also under instruction and doing good work.

Education of Reception and Discharge.

The following statement gives the mental condition of the discharged pupils upon their reception and removal from the institution.

Library.

The library contains over 6,000 volumes. In addition large numbers of newspapers and magazines are provided for the use of the pupils and every effort is made to lead them to form habits of reading.

Applications.

A number of applicants are now awaiting admission. It is hoped that all may be admitted next term. As no new classes are formed after February such applicants have to await their turn in September, when the new term begins.

Pupils at the Close of the Year.

The number of pupils in the institution at the close of the year, May 31st, 1914, was 541—286 boys and 255 girls, supported as follows:

Instruction.

Little need be said concerning methods. They are the same that we have followed in past years and which have been already fully reported. Satisfactory progress has been made in both the scholastic and industrial departments. Our teachers frequently publish in book form the lessons they use during the year. These books are printed and bound in our own shop and become the property of the institution.

Pupils Discharged.

During the year ending May 31st, 1914, 30 pupils were discharged. The following table gives the time they were under instruction and the cause of their removal from the institution:

Dental Cases.

The following cases were treated by the dentist during the year: Dr. Edwin Shoemaker, a graduate of the Dental College of the University of Pennsylvania, took excellent care of the children's teeth.

Heredity.

We find deafness hereditary in children or grandchildren of congenitally deaf persons; and that Scarlet Fever, Cerebro-Spinal Meningitis and the diseases which cause deafness, are more apt to result in it in the cases where there is a tendency to deafness in the families.

Instruction.

All children who are old enough have instruction in light household duties, sewing and Sloyd training. The children, who have completed our training, are successfully learning their trades among hearing people, as they must ply them among hearing people.

The children are taught the speech and language that hearing children learn before going to school. They live a natural home life, eating at the tables with the principal, teachers and housemothers, and are constantly guided to the use and understanding of speech and language. To this end they are under the care of the house mothers when not with the teachers, whose duty it is to train them gradually into the language of the playrooms, bedrooms, and also out-door language.

The work is carried on, on the cottage system—each cottage is built for thirty pupils. The course is uninterrupted by vacations, just as our learning to talk was uninterrupted. It is intended to prepare the children to be educated with the learning. The children are also carefully trained in all domestic duties of which their age makes them capable. All of them receive gymnastic training, also swimming, and the older ones have manual training in clay modelling, wood work, basket making, etc. All of the children of ordinary ability who have completed our course, are being successfully educated in schools with the hearing and their teachers (when capable) report that they have no difficulty in teaching them in classes with hearing children. In fact, a larger proportion of our children succeed in the public schools than of the hearing children, owing to the fact that our little deaf children in public schools have been able to acquire in less fortunate homes.

While we do not admit feeble-minded children, we have some of the sort found in public schools for hearing children who are backward and require special training. We endeavor to supply special training according to the requirement of these cases, after which these children have been able to support themselves through trades learned with the hearing.

Applications.

The usual number of applications for admission continue to be received. The school has been filled the entire year and there are short waiting lists in both boys' and girls' departments in the main school and at the kindergarten building. We continue to be impressed with the fact that there is no provision in Pennsylvania for feeble-minded blind children, of whom there are quite a number. While this number is comparatively insignificant compared with the percentage of feeble-minded among those who see the need for provision for this class is in direct proportion to the double affliction of feeble-mindedness and blindness.

In other institutions,	83	39	194	316
Not stated,	33
Total,	3,853	3,061	3,103	10,017

Vagrants.

The vagrants relieved in almshouse districts are considered separately, as they represent a different class from the inmates of almshouses, or the persons in receipt of out-door relief, who for the most part, are the deserving poor, or those who become destitute through old age or misfortune.

The number relieved during the year ending December 31, 1914, as compiled from the returns made to the Board of Public Charities, was as follows:

	Males.	Females.	Total.	Increase.	Per cent. of increase.
In almshouses,	23,907	31	23,938	12,222	104.31
By out door relief,	13,182	41	13,223	7,006	112.70
Total,	37,089	72	37,161

Of the total number of vagrants, 37,089, or 99.80 per cent., were males, 72, or .20 per cent. were females. The number of vagrants increased 16,088 or 76.60 per cent., as compared with the previous year.

It was also reported that transportation was furnished to 4,935 vagrants. The number of lodgings reported to have been furnished vagrants during the year ending December 31, 1914, was as follows:

Lodgings furnished.	Number.	Increase.	Per cent. of increase.
In almshouses,	22,202	12,067	118.84
By out-door relief,	11,242	5,026	80.05
Total,	33,444	17,093

The number of meals reported to have been furnished to vagrants during the year ending December 31, 1914, was as follows:

Meals furnished.	Number.	Increase.	Per cent. of increase.
In almshouses,	44,219	22,343	102.13
By out-door relief,	20,876	10,309	97.56
Total,	65,095	32,652

It will be observed that the foregoing statement does not include the lodgers in station houses of cities (of which class we have no returns) or vagrants assisted under the township system of relief, outside of almshouse districts.

REPORT OF THE CHAIRMAN OF THE COMMITTEE ON LUNACY.

To the Board of Public Charities:

Gentlemen:—Following the requirement of the law, the Committee on Lunacy presents its annual report for the term ending May 31, 1914. The provisions of the act of May 8, 1883, among the duties of this Committee include the preparation of reports on the condition of the insane in the Commonwealth, and on the management of the Hospitals, public and private, almshouses, and all other places in which the insane are kept for care and treatment, or detention, and that this report shall be presented on or before the first day of November of each year. The present constitutes the thirty-second annual report of this Committee since its organization on August 20th, 1883.

At the close of the year the institutions for the insane, of all classes, reported 19,085 patients who were then receiving care and treatment. Of these 17,717 were classed as indigent, being supported partly or entirely by the Poor authorities of the State and County. This number includes 335 criminal insane, and 265 insane convicts. On account of the delay in completing the State Hospital for the Criminal Insane, at Farview, only two wards of this institution are available and are now in operation, with a capacity of 174 patients of this class. As it is desirable to remove the criminal and dangerous patients from the other State and County Hospitals, the Committee recommends the completion of the State Hospital at Farview as soon as he means can be conveniently provided by the Assembly. Efficiency and economy will both be served by completing this work as the per capita cost of maintaining a population of less than 200 patients in such an institution is necessarily much higher than if it contained six times as many patients, with about the same overhead charges.

The several State Hospitals report also 398 reimbursing and private patients, and 106 of this class are in the County Hospitals for the Insane. In Private Hospitals, there are 864 who have been committed as insane, making a total of 1,368 patients who are not indigent. It is believed that if systematic investigation into the means of support were made in each case applying for admission to the State Hospitals for the Insane, a much larger number would be found who could reimburse the State, than, at present, are so classified. Measures should be taken to protect the State from imposition of this kind by systematic inquiry.

The net increase in the total number of the insane, who are reported as receiving institutional care and treatment at the end of the year as compared with the beginning of the year, was 443, which is less than the usual increase. It is not believed, however, that these figures warrant the inference that insanity is decreasing to any notable extent in the community. On the contrary, it is asserted by able authority that the explanation is rather to be found in the fact of the overcrowded wards in our State Hospitals, for the lack of accommodations for more cases naturally tends to reduce the number of admissions. The result is a greater number of the insane at large in the community, who are a menace to others as well as to themselves. This is a powerful argument in favor of the erection of more hospitals by the State, and adding wards to existing State Hospitals. Two new hospitals located in the southwestern and southeastern portions of the State, should be built by the Commonwealth, and additional wards be constructed in the present existing State Hospitals, to make provision for relief of the present crowding with as little delay as possible, and also to provide for future increase.

Indeed, the restricted accommodations in the State Hospitals, the overcrowding amounting to over 30 per cent., give us great concern. It is the only serious criticism that can be made against the standard of care and treatment uniformly prevailing in these institutions, in which more than half the insane are at present receiving treatment. The management of our State institutions in the minds of unprejudiced observers compares very favorably with that of institutions of the same character, in other States of the Union.

Some of the larger County Hospitals for the insane are excellently conducted and maintain a standard of care which is nearly if not quite equal to that of the State Hospitals. On the other hand, in some of the smaller County Homes, the equipment is below the standard; the chronic insane receive merely custodial care and in a few of these institutions the medical oversight is of a perfunctory character. The number in almshouses not licensed to receive the insane is 102, which is 187 less than one year ago. As soon as the State shall supply more hospital accommodations for this class, the insane inmates of almshouses and small county asylums can be transferred to more suitable quarters. For this reason the increase in size of the State Hospital for the Chronic Insane, at Wernersville, is urgently needed and an appropriation for this extension is recommended, so that it may ultimately accommodate 2,000 or more of the chronic insane, which in fact constitute more than 80 per cent. of those now under treatment. It is suggested for consideration that a similar institution shall be established in the southwestern part of the State where the counties are clamoring for more hospital accommodation. Dixmont Hospital has reached its limit of growth, with only normal capacity for 700, and a present population of 979 patients. Owing to its location it cannot be much enlarged. Moreover, it is not owned by the State; but by a Corporation, which operates it as a semi-State institution, so that it receives the same consideration from the Legislature as the State Hospitals proper.

The establishment of psychopathic wards in the general hospitals, which was provided for by an act approved June 9, 1911, has large possibilities for usefulness in reducing the number of commitments to hospitals for the insane, and it is recommended that the appropriation for this purpose may be renewed for the next two years.

The detailed report containing the usual statistics of the year, are appended.

ISAAC JOHNSON,

Chairman.

REPORT OF THE SECRETARY.

To the Committee on Lunacy:

Gentlemen:—Herewith, I beg to respectfully present my report as Secretary for the year ending May 31, 1914.

During the twelve months, 31 visits have been made to the State Hospitals for the Insane and the Institutions for the Feeble-Minded and Epileptic. In making these visits the several members of the Committee participated when special investigations were required, as well as on other occasions when convenient. The Secretary desires to acknowledge the great assistance rendered by the Chairman of the Committee, and also by other members, in visiting institutions under the supervision of the Committee on Lunacy, and by other members of the Board of Public Charities.

State institutions were visited on the following dates:

Harrisburg State Hospital, December 10, 1913, March 11th and 25th, 1914, May 5th and 20th.

Danville State Hospital, December 10th, 1913, June 12th, 1914.

Norristown State Hospital, June 5th, 1913, August 7th and 29th, October 20th, January 21st and 29th, 1914, April 4th and 19th.

Warren State Hospital, July 7th, 1913, September 16th and April 29th, 1914.

Wernersville State Asylum, May 20th, 1914.

Allentown State Hospital, August 12th, 1913, January 5th, 1914, and April 6th.

Farview State Hospital, September 6th and 30th, 1913, October 5th, January 14th, 1914, April 4th.

Dixmont Hospital, June 16th, 1913, October 23rd, February 7th, 1914.

Institution for Feeble-Minded and Epileptic, Spring City, October 8, 1913.

The visits to the several County Hospitals for the Insane operating under the County Care Acts, were 48, and to unlicensed County Homes, 5. Private Hospitals and Sanitaria received 15 visits.

During the period 251 patients were interviewed by request, and nine were discharged by order of the Committee after examination on account of their having recovered sufficiently to no longer require institutional care, or on account of recovery (State Hospital at Danville, 4; Philadelphia Hospital, 5.). Four others were discharged in a moribund condition at the request of relatives.

The over-crowding of State Hospitals previously reported still continues, and is a source of anxiety to all of those who are responsible for the treatment of the insane. Both Norristown and Dixmont have been obliged to refuse to receive patients for months at a time for sanitary reasons as well as for the personal safety of the inmates which is menaced by over-crowding. The Hospital for the Chronic Insane at Wernersville, and that for the Criminal Insane, at Farview, are filled to capacity and will not receive any new cases. The Philadelphia Hospital has reduced its population to fifty per cent. excess over capacity, and the result has been a great benefit to the patients in the standard of care and in reducing the number of accidents. The over-crowded condition of the insane department at Retreat (Central Poor District of Luzerne County) was reported by the Secretary, as a menace to the health and safety of the inmates, the population being 634 with a normal capacity of 530. The secretary was empowered to make arrangements for the transfer of patients to the State Hospital at Danville. On July 13th fifty patients were transferred without accident.

During the year, the Secretary has, by order of the Committee, visited the State Hospital Commission in New York, the State Board of Charities, at Columbus, Ohio, and the State Lunacy Committee of Maryland, at Baltimore, to make arrangements for the return of alien indigent mental defectives to their places of legal settlement.

Under the Act of June 22, 1897, persons have been returned, at the expense of the State, to their homes in New York, Ohio, Maryland, North and South Carolina.

Reports of the abuse of patients have been remarkably rare, and but few were of serious character. We have to record, however, a very unfortunate occurrence at Marshalsea, where a young woman, named Goldie Herman, died under unusual circumstances. The Coroner gave a verdict of "Death from shock and exhaustion due to being kept in a straight-jacket while insane." A committee consisting of Commissioners P. C. Boyle, and S. E. Gill, and the Secretary, was appointed to make an investigation. The report stated that on account of the illness and death of Dr. Miller, the physician in chief of Marshalsea, the superintendent, Mr. M. F. Larkin, had assumed the duties of the physician to a large extent in admitting, paroling, or discharging patients, and ordering restraint, and detailing for work. This extended over a few months until Dr. F. Proescher, Chief Physician, was appointed. When he came on duty he found this disturbed patient in a camisole, which had been worn for six weeks. The doctor ordered the head nurse to remove the jacket and give the patient a warm bath. After the bath, blisters formed upon the body and thighs, and the skin came off, giving the impression that the bath had been too hot. The patient died a few hours later. The Committee found that the treatment was improper yet the prolonged state of excitement for six weeks, without sleep, undoubtedly had produced a condition of extreme exhaustion which of itself might produce death. The Committee recommended radical changes in the management and in the control of the patients, and in the rules for bathing, etc., which were all adopted and have since been carried out. Dr. Clyde R. McKinniss, Chief Physician, to the Male Department of the State Hospital, at Norristown, has since been appointed Chief physician at Marshalsea, with full control of the patients and attendants. A visiting Board of alienists consisting of Dr. Theodore Diller, T. L. McKennon, and Edward H. Myer, was created in order to improve the standard of care in the institution. The ultimate result of this regrettable occurrence,—the death of Goldie Herman—has been that Marshalsea is now elevated to the first rank among county institutions of the kind in the State.

At the Pennsylvania Hospital, the death of a man by suffocation was investigated by the Secretary, October 20, 1913. It was found that he had choked on a piece of meat while eating dinner. Tracheotomy was promptly performed, but without avail. The Coroner exonerated the Hospital and pronounced the death accidental.

By request of the Chairman of the Committee, the Secretary, on February 2, 1914, visited a farm house in Delaware County, in which an insane woman was confined by her family. It was learned that a neighboring physician was in attendance and that the patient was properly cared for. She was found to be in a moribund condition and died shortly afterward.

The condition of 16 persons confined as insane in the Dauphin County Poor-house was found to be unsatisfactory and the patients were transferred to the State Hospital, at Harrisburg.

At the request of Dr. H. L. Orth, an investigation into an alleged case of maltreatment of a patient by an attendant at the State Lunatic Hospital was made on December 10, 1913, by the Secretary. The patient was examined and found to have a fracture of the nose and contusions upon the face. He denied that it had been caused by an attendant and made light of the injury, which he said was caused by a blow from a swinging door, in going out of the dining room, and the Secretary so reported.

In the Westmoreland County Home, a woman died April 3, 1914, who was found to have bruises on her body which gave rise to charges of abuse by attendants. The Secretary reported that after visiting the hospital and the undertaker, he could find no cause for suspecting that the patient had suffered any bad treatment. She had been confined to bed for months with paresis and several times had fallen in attempting to get out of bed. No complaint was ever made by relatives regarding the treatment. At the same time, the report stated that the standard of care in this institution is unsatisfactory, because of overcrowding of wards, lack of employment and diversion for the inmates, and of outdoor exercise. The diet was poor, and there are no night attendants on duty. On motion of Mr. Boyle, the payment of the quarterly accounts of the Westmoreland County Homes was ordered to be delayed until better conditions are supplied for the indigent insane.

A letter was received from the St. Francis Hospital, announcing that the Psychopathic Ward was in operation, and requesting information with regard to the admission of indigent patients. A Committee consisting of Commissioners Ryan and Boyle and the Secretary was appointed to call on the Auditor General, and obtain an expression of opinion from him. The Committee reported December 10th, 1913, that the Auditor General would require a copy of the Court Commitment, with a certificate of indigency of the patient, signed by the hospital authorities, for all cases admitted for observation, care and treatment, and would pay the account of the hospital for the insane, at the rate of $2.00 per day, for a period not to exceed thirty days.

Plans were approved by the Committee, as follows:

December 16, 1913, Philadelphia Hospital, Psychopathic Wards, approved.

December 20, 1913, St. Francis Hospital, Psychopathic Wards, approved.

March 14, 1914, Marshalsea, two new ward buildings.

April 13, 1914, Farview, new ward and infirmary building.

April 13, 1914, Wernersville, extension of infirmary building

Among the improvements in administration introduced during the year, is the employment of an experienced Field Worker, by the Warren State Hospital. The duty of this official, who is a woman trained for the work, is to visit paroled patients in their homes and keep an oversight over their treatment and condition while out of the hospital. Dr. Mitchell reports this work as being very satisfactory and useful. It enables the superintendent to parole a larger proportion of the patients and keep in touch with them by frequent reports. A similar arrangement is in force at the Philadelphia Hospital, and several other hospitals have it in consideration.

By request of the Board of Pardons on January 23rd, 1914, the Secretary examined John Shushinski, a prisoner in the Schuylkill County Jail, at Pottsville, lying under sentence of death for murder. He was found to be insane and suffering from epileptic psychosis, and so reported to the Board.

The Secretary attended a meeting of the American Medico-Psychological Association at Niagara Falls, June 10 to 13th, and read a paper on "Dr. Benjamin Rush, Patriot, Physician and Psychiatrist."

More attention has been given to the diversional and useful employment of patients than in previous years, and a table is appended showing the kind of work done and the percentage of patients employed in the several State Hospitals. In another table the number of patients regularly employed in the County Care Hospitals is shown, and their proportion to the entire number under treatment. New tables relating to the County Hospitals have also been introduced in this report to which attention is invited as they communicate useful information.

This report would be incomplete without a word of appreciation of the faithful and very efficient services of the Chief Clerk, Miss Annie J. Vernon, who is now entering upon her eleventh year of usefulness in the office of the Committee. In her responsible and important position in keeping the records of more than 18,000 patients, in preparing the statistics for the annual report, she has only one assistant, Miss Lillian J. Riddle, (who is also the stenographer) whose exemplary attention to her duties is also gratefully acknowledged by the writer, who takes pleasure in recording this testimony, and bringing it to the attention of the Committee.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

FRANK WOODBURY,
Secretary.

May 31, 1915.

The following table shows the progressive increase in the number of insane patients from 1870 to 1914, in comparison with the general population of Pennsylvania, according to the United States Census reports:

*On May 8, 1883, the "Lunacy Law" was enacted by the Legislature, which created the Committee on Lunacy of the Board of Public Charities and gave it supervision over places where the insane are cared for. Since that date, the records and statistics of insanity in this State have been systematically kept. In 1886 and 1897, the first County Care Acts were passed, and many of the indigent insane in the poorhouses, were investigated and regularly committed, and many of them were removed to State Hospitals for the Insane by the Lunacy Committee. In return, some of the chronic insane were transferred from these State Institutions to the care of the county authorities, which had accepted the provisions of the County Care Acts, which were re-enacted in 1909.

STATE HOSPITALS FOR THE INSANE IN PENNSYLVANIA.

STATE LUNATIC HOSPITAL, HARRISBURG.

Southern Hospital District.

Location.—This institution is located in Dauphin County about two miles northeast of the center of Harrisburg, and is easy of access by the city electric street car system. It is a short distance from the Maclay street station on the Pennsylvania Railroad. It was the first of the large State hospitals of Pennsylvania to be erected, having been established by act of the Legislature approved April 14th, 1845. Patients were first received October 1st, 1851.

Hospital District.—The southern district, which this hospital represents, includes sixteen counties in the southern portion of the State, namely: Adams, Bedford, Berks, Blair, Cumberland, Dauphin, Franklin, Fulton, Huntingdon, Juniata, Lancaster, Lebanon, Mifflin, Perry, Schuylkill and York. Several of these counties, Adams, Blair, Cumberland, Lancaster and Franklin, also have licensed, local asylums in which some of their insane are cared for under the county care act.

On May 31st, 1914, the insane population consisted of males, 728; females, 684; making a total of 1,412.

Admissions during the year were 123 males, 99 females, total, 222.

The average daily number of patients under treatment during the year was 1,335.68. The maximum number was 1,592 and the minimum number was 1,400.

The number of attendants was 126, all other employees, 104. The proportion of attendants to the average number of patients was 1 to 10.

Restraint and seclusion: On May 31st, 1914, there were in seclusion one man and two women, and under restraint, three men and one woman, for self-mutilation, surgical reasons, etc.
